

"Appeal"ing Affirmations

DREAMS

I realize the great value of my dreams and joyously work to make them come true.

I realize the great value of my dreams and joyously work to make them come true.

My dreams are valuable and important. I see how much they affect my life. Because my hopes are important, I enjoy exploring them. Realizing the dreams I have in my heart is a big part of my life. My aspirations have meaning to me, and I work toward them every day.

Dreams change over time, but the value of dreaming does not diminish. I dream because I appreciate all that life has to offer me. Because my dreams have value, I focus on them. I am making them a reality by getting closer to them each day.

I make the most of my life by working to fulfill my highest vision of myself and my world. When one dream comes to pass, I dream another dream, so I can keep moving forward.

I enjoy helping others manifest their visions. Because I set a good example, others are encouraged by me. When they fulfill their aspirations, it brings me great joy. In helping others realize their dreams, I often discover new ways to fulfill mine as well.

My hopes are easy to attain because I enjoy working toward them. I manifest all of my dreams as I move forward in life.

Today, I see the value of my dreams and enjoy working toward making them a reality.

Self-Reflection Questions:

1. How can I continue to realize all of my hopes?
2. What can I do to see the value of what I dream about?
3. Is there a way that I can help others see the value of their dreams and bring them to life?
